

3/12/2019

After a site inspection and maintenance visit with a local Tree Specialist, “Certified Arborist”, Taylor Borough Council has been informed that two of the four large Norway Maple Trees at the front of the Taylor Community Center pose a safety concern due to their declining condition and disease. As a result we will be removing the two trees in the near future and as a result re-plant two new trees that will be appropriate for the location.